JOY GIVERS IN EVERY SECTION

Unprecedented Charitable Activity in Gettysburg on Christmas Day Families in Large Numbers Visited by Kind Hearted Friends.

Never in Gettysburg's history has there been such a remarkable and wide-spread spirit of charity as was everywhere manifest here on Christmas Day. Those who are in a position to know say that the number of persons participating in the giving of gifts to the poor of the community was far in excess of other years, that the things given were of more value, and the number of persons enjoying this charity numbered by the scores.

Baskets were sent to almost every part of town filled with good things to eat. Coal wagons were kept busy delivering their burdens to the doors of families who needed it sorely. Clothing was distributed to many a home, and toys were not forgotten while the necessities of life were provided.

Individuals selected this as the best way of observing Christmas and found the greatest happiness in doing it. In the majority of cases the persons who received the generous gifts had no way of knowing who was the donor. There would be a rap at the door, some boy would hand in a basket, and with a brief but hearty "Merry Christmas" dash away without ever so much as giving the surprised recipient a chance to ask who was their benefactor. Coal wagons would draw up in front of homes; "Where shall I put it?" would be asked and after depositing the black diamonds the driver, too, would hurry away without imparting any further information.

Some others wanted to have the joy of seeing the happiness their gifts would cause and took their own presents around to be amply rewarded by the surprised gratitude of their new-made friends. These messengers of the Christmas time could be seen about town all during the day but their activities during the early morning hours were specially noticeable, persons having laid their plans so that the entire day could be made one of joy through their gifts.

Local organizations who gave baskets and other treats to the deserving had a busy day of it, too, and they found the greatest pleasure in carrying out this annual custom. Merchants contributed liberally and dealers in poultry and meats were equally generous.

Surely Gettysburg had its best Christmas day, and few, if any, failed to get cheer out of the kindness of others.

COMPANY WINS SUIT

Addition of Partner Costs Firm $2000 Insurance.

The case of Black & Company, of Rocky Ridge vs. Taneytown Mutual Fire Insurance Company, was tried in the Superior Court, of Baltimore, having been removed from the Carroll County Court. The suit was for $2000, on a store property at Rocky Ridge, that was destroyed by fire some time ago. Black lost the case because he had taken a partner in with him after the policy was issued, without notifying the company. The policy was in Mr. Black's name and not in name of Black & Company, who claimed payment.

CATTLE DISEASE COSTLY

Reports Show that it is Five Times Worse than 1908.

Officers of the State Livestock Board say that, judging from reports in hand, the outbreak of the foot and mouth disease among cattle in this State in 1914 will be five times more serious than the outbreak in 1908. Efforts are being made to ascertain the number of cattle infected and the number killed and the real value of all animals that had to be destroyed, so that steps may be taken by the officials to have the Legislature reimburse the owners.

It was stated at the office of the board that a further modification of the quarantine could be looked for soon after Christmas if conditions remain as they are now. The cases reported have come from areas previously infected. Some difficulty has been experienced in central counties over the killing of herds in which the disease had appeared, and officers declare that if necessary they will resort to arrests to compel surrender of cattle.

FORCE BEATS ALL RECORDS

Handle Fifteen Hundred Parcels Daily with Immense Quantity of Other Mail. No Delay. Lemonade on the Side.

Fifteen hundred parcels, thousands of post cards, and twice the usual amount of first class letters were handled every day this week at the Gettysburg post office by the clerks and carriers. In spite of the tremendous task confronting them they worked so rapidly and so systematically that the office was cleared every day and not one piece of incoming or outgoing mail was delayed through the rush.

Benton Gilbert, the parcel post man, had one assistant in the delivery business and the way they got rid of the incoming packages was a marvel. Inside the post office, town and rural carriers, with the regular force of clerks worked constantly. The men paid no attention to whether or not it was their "trick" but went to the work as though it was their own business. How well they succeeded is shown by the results secured.

An idea of the amount of mail taken care of is shown in the business done on Wednesday when no less than one hundred sacks of mail were dispatched from the Gettysburg office. Christmas cards flooded the office and envelopes of all shapes and sizes confronted the clerks, making doubly hard the work of sorting and distribution.

Christmas Day it was expected that there would be a let-up but such was not the case and, though there were "holiday hours" there was little relief and to the very end the work was kept up. A huge bucket of lemonade was on hand to refresh the force during their work. Postmaster Duncan securing it for them from Mathews, caterer.

Throughout it all everybody stayed happy and the crowning event of the season's work came when the force gathered to show their esteem for Mr. Duncan in the presentation of a beautiful wicker chair. A large jar of Mr. Duncan's favorite tobacco with a pipe accompanied the gift. P. S. Tate made the presentation and Mr. Duncan responded.

JOY FOR ALL AT CHRISTMAS TREE

Nine Hundred Children Given Treat at Community Event. Beautifully Lighted Tree Feature of Gettysburg's Christmas.

Emotions of sorrow and gladness vied for supremacy in the breast of many a little tot who struggled at the end of the long line of waiting for Santa's gift at the municipal tree Christmas eve. Joy at being in the presence of the time honored Christmas hero was sometimes overcome by fear that he would vanish before he had greeted some lonely little chap in the rear, and then a tear would stain a ruddy cheek and a sob would shake a tiny frame to be suppressed by a bigger brother with the assurance that Santa would wait for all.

Santa did wait for all, he waited for eight hundred and eighty eight and then found that he was prepared for twelve more boys and girls who did not come. Most of these were too sick to leave their homes, but they were found by one of Santa's best helpers and had their share of the gifts.

The long line of expectant children began to form as the hands of the clock neared six and shortly after that the tree was illuminated with hundreds of various colored lights as the strains of "O Sanctissima" floated upon the air. Prayers by Rev. J. B. Baker and Rev. F. E. Taylor and a song preceded the distribution, while the expectant throng of little ones stamped the snow covered ground to keep warm. The reflection of the lights upon the tree glazed with white and the anxious faces of the assembled children was a spectacle to be remembered by those fortunate enough to see it.

Little David Pitzer was the first to receive Santa's bounty. As he scampered off with a hearty "thanks" and a grin of delight the line pressed forward and each in turn got his orange and bag of candy. After those who had waited patiently had all been served a belated crowd, who misunderstood the time of the ceremony, came from the picture shows and they, too, were cheered by this first successful municipal treat.

The community Christmas tree cost Gettysburg just about $100, all of which has been subscribed through the efforts of the committee in charge of arrangements, Mrs. C. G. Crist, Mrs. H. B. Bender, Mrs. A. B. Plank and Mrs. Wayne Keet.

Many lent their assistance to make the affair a success but special mention is due the employees of the Gettysburg Light Company who worked during the heavy snow and in the stinging cold of Thursday to have all the lights in place before evening. The work was done under most trying circumstances and both Mr. Turner and his men deserve unstinted praise for their help which was given entirely free of charge. A. B. Plank was largely instrumental in the successful direction of operations about the base of the tree and H. J. Weikert donated his labor in connection with the work.

BOLD THIEVES

"Mutt" and "Jeff" Robbers Attack Edgemont Storekeeper.

"Hands up" announced a short heavy-set, desperate looking man as he walked into the store of Jacob Good near Edgemont Thursday night shortly after 9 o'clock. While the proprietor, who was preparing to lock up the building for the night obeyed the command a long, lean, lanky gentleman who had followed the short one into the store, proceeded to relieve the cash register of something over $100.

After stuffing their pockets full of everything of any value that could be easily carried the pair left the store. "Shorty", as he had been addressed by his companion, was still covering Mr. Good with a revolver as he backed out.

Authorities were immediately notified.

CARRANZA MAY SURRENDER

Washington Has Offered to Recognize Government in Mexico Under Certain Conditions.

Mexico City, Mex., Dec. 26.—That the United States proposes to recognize Provisional President Gutierrez as head of the only stable government in Mexico is indicated by the report that the private secretary to President Gutierrez has received a note from Washington purporting to deal with a possible offer of recognition of President Gutierrez.

According to the statement, Washington had offered to recognize the Gutierrez government provided complete and general guarantees for all foreigners and Mexicans were forthcoming as well as a general amnesty to include all officers and enlisted men of the federal army.

It was not stated what the reply was.

Mr. Canova left Mexico City suddenly, going toward Vera Cruz.

There are persistent reports in usually well informed circles that Carranza has made proposals for his surrender. They cannot be confirmed in official quarters.

Xmas Halts Conference.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 26.—General Carranza spent Christmas day in Orizaba and General Villa in Mexico City, according to messages received here by the representatives of the two leaders. Both sent Christmas greetings to their followers on the border.

Both stated that the conference was proceeding satisfactorily, but that only preliminary work had been done. For more than a week there has been no change in the position of the opposing forces and very little firing.

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 26.—Scott Housekeeper, a young farmer, climbed on an engine to remedy a defect. He had in his hand a piece of rope, and this caught in the balance wheel and he was whirled around.

Housekeeper applied a tourniquet to prevent his bleeding to death, and was started to a hospital in an auto, but died before half the journey was completed.

CANADIAN FIGHTERS GO TO THE FRONT

Princess Pat's Regiment Sent to Firing Line.

London, Dec. 26.—Princess Patricia's regiment of Canadian fighters is at the front for its baptism of fire.

Since their arrival in England with the first contingent of Canadian troops, the crack soldiers have been held at the great camp at Salisbury Plains. They will be followed soon by regiments of Scottish troops from the Dominion.

The rest of the 30,000 men who came across the Atlantic are reaching the final stages of their training, and it fully is expected that the whole contingent before many weeks will be on the continent.

The place of honor of the first regiment to move across the English channel fell to Princess Patricia's regiment, as it is made up largely of men who have seen previous service and who needed but a few weeks to renew their acquaintance with the part they are to play in the fighting lines.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Use it like a cold cream and dry Eczema eruptions right up.

The moment you apply bold-sulphur to an itching or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a renowned dermatologist.

This remarkable sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt relief, even in aggravated Eczema, that it is a never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

For many years bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous eruptions by reason of its cooling, parasite-destroying properties and nothing has ever been found to take its place in relieving irritable and inflammatory affections of the skin.

While not always establishing a permanent cure, yet in every instance, it immediately subdues the itching irritation and heals the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again manifests itself.

Any good druggist will supply an ounce of bold-sulphur, which should be applied to the affected parts like the ordinary cold creams. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the Eczema is accompanied with tortuous itching.

TO INVESTIGATE ALL FOUNDATIONS

Federal Probe Into Rockefeller, Sage, Carnegie Charters.

QUIZ LEADING FINANCIERS.

Educators and Economists Included In Commission's Subpoenas—Will Inquire Into Charges That Big Self Perpetuating Organizations Are Menace.
Hearing Scheduled For Jan. 11.

The federal commission on industrial relations has determined upon a sweeping investigation of the country's greatest benevolent organizations. The investigation will open in New York city on Jan. 11 next. In addition to the previously announced investigation of the Rockefeller foundation the commission, Chairman F. P. Walsh, announced would inquire into the affairs of the Russell Sage foundation, the Baron de Hirsch fund, all the Carnegie benefactions, the Cleveland foundation and seek the reason for the Rockefeller contributions to charitable, philanthropic and educational institutions, which now amount to $85,000, 000, in addition to the fund contributed to the foundation.

To Call Noted Witnesses.
It was announced by Chairman Walsh that these organizations would be investigated to ascertain if they were a menace to the republic's future, and more than a score of the greatest financiers, educators and economists of the country, it was asserted, would be called as witnesses. In the list are Andrew Carnegie, the two Rockefellers, J. P. Morgan, E. T. Stotesbury, Francis L. Hine, president of the New York Clearing House association; Jacob H. Schiff, E. H. Gary, T. P. Shonts, Theodore N. Vail, Dr. Charles W. Eliot,
Dr. Arthur T. Hadley of Yale, Seth Low and others who are equally well known.

It is asserted that the basis of the commission's inquiry will be the letters produced here by Jesse F. Welborn, president of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, showing the interest which members of the executive committee of the Rockefeller foundation took in the coal strike. The investigation, the plans for which have been under consideration for several months, it is asserted, will be the most important ever conducted by a government commission. Most of the witnesses have been subpoenaed and to make sure that none of them should be absent when needed, instructions were sent to agents of the industrial commission in the east.

Wide Scope of Inquiry.
The scope of the investigation as outlined officially follows:

"The commission will investigate the rights, powers and functions of self perpetuating organizations under their present charters and the extent to which these charters may be stretched under the present constitution of the United States and the restrictions which present constitutional limitations impose.

"It will investigate the attitude of high finance toward industrial questions—what organizations, such as the Rockefeller foundation, are doing to relieve industrial unrest; how the policies of these organizations are shaped and by whom; what part the source of their income plays in determining what these policies shall be; whether self perpetuating organizations, such as the Rockefeller foundation, are a menace to the future political and economic welfare of the nation; what figure they cut in politics; the labor policy of 'big business' in general."

Charges have been made to the commission on industrial relations, according to Chairman Walsh, that the creation of the Rockefeller and other foundations was the beginning of an effort to "perpetuate the present position of predatory wealth through the corruption of the sources of public information."

Fear of a Monarchy.
Aside from the facts given above the members of the federal commission decline to discuss the proposed investigation, but it is known that information has reached them that there is a fear, on the part of persons unnamed, that the Rockefeller foundation and similar self perpetuating institutions controlling great wealth will, if not check-ed by legislation, be used as instruments to change the form of government of the United States at a future date, and there is even the hint that there is fear of a monarchy.

It has been drawn to the attention of the commission that the Rockefeller foundation, having originally $100,000, 000 exempt from taxation, now has more than $103,000,000 in its treasury after having given away several millions annually. The growth of the fund is held to be a menace to the gold supply of the nation.

War Changes Guidebooks.

One of the multitude of effects of the war is its alteration of the guide-books to the continent, says the Westminster Gazette. The majority of these have needed little change for several years in the bulk of their pages. But now a publisher of guide-books says that as regards Belgium, Austria and France there will be wholesale corrections needed. And the end is not in sight.

Uncle Eben.
"Bout de only trouble dat Job missed," said Uncle Eben, "was runnin' fur office an' havin' friends come aroun' de mornin' after election to tell him whar he made his mistake."

Many "Incurable" Cases Soon Cured
After 5 to 15 Doctors Failed.

At first no disease is apparently more harmless than dropsy, a little swelling of the eyelids, hands, feet, ankles or abdomen. Finally there is great shortness of breath, smothering spells, sitting up to breathe, cough, faint spells, sometimes nausea and vomiting, even bursting of the limbs and a lingering and wretched death if the dropsy is not removed.

Dr. Miles has been known as a leading specialist in this disease for 30 years. His liberal offer is certainly worthy of serious consideration. You may not have another opportunity.

The Grand Dropsy Treatment consists of four dropsy remedies in one, also Tonic Tablets and Pura-Laxa for removing the water. This treatment is especially prepared for each patient and is many times as successful as that of most physicians. It usually relieves the first day, and often removes swelling in six days. Delay is dangerous.
